

ANNEX IV
TO THE AGREEMENT BETWEEN
THE DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY OF THE UNITED STATES
AND THE
U.S.-SPAIN JOINT COMMITTEE
FOR SCIENTIFIC AND TECHNOLOGICAL COOPERATION
IN THE FIELD OF ELECTRON-POSITRON COLLISION INTERACTIONS

WHEREAS, the Department of Energy of the United States (hereinafter referred to as "DOE") and the U.S. Spain Joint Committee for Scientific and Technological Cooperation (hereinafter referred to as the "Joint Committee") have entered into an Agreement in Energy Research and Development, signed on December 12, 1985 (hereinafter referred to as the "Agreement");

WHEREAS, DOE and the Joint Committee (hereinafter referred to as the "Parties") recognize that it would be beneficial to both Parties to cooperate in the field of electron-positron collision interactions;

Therefore, the Parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1

SCOPE

1. Except as provided in paragraph 2 below, the provisions of the Agreement and Appendix I to the Agreement shall apply to the implementation of this Annex.

2. The Laboratory for Nuclear Science of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) in the United States of America, and the Institute for Nuclear Research of the Junta de Energia Nuclear (JEN) of Spain have an on-going relationship covering work on the Muon Detector portion of the LEP-3 Detector System for the LEP Collider Facility at the European Organization for Nuclear Research (CERN) at Geneva, Switzerland. U.S. DOE has an existing contractual relationship with MIT under which MIT is doing this work on the Muon Detector, including work with JEN. Under this Annex the Parties shall provide additional funding for continuation of this work.

This Annex shall not affect any on-going relationships among or between the various entities named above, except in the matter of funding. Patent and Information provisions under existing contractual documents shall be controlling for any patents and information arising under this Annex IV.

ARTICLE 2

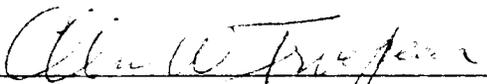

The Program Coordinators for this Annex shall be:
For the DOE, Bernard Hildebrand, Chief, Physics Research Branch,
Division of High Energy Physics, Office of Energy Research.

For the Joint Committee _____, of the Junta de Energia Nuclear.

The Principal Investigator for this Annex shall be S. Ting, Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

ARTICLE 3
DURATION

This Annex is effective upon the date of the last signature and shall continue for three (3) years.
